

HUNTING HORSE RUNS INTO FIRE

Weird Rush Into Burning
Radnor Stables.

BLOODED HORSES RESCUED

Millionaire Fire Chief and Wealthy
Aids Respond to Alarm and Save Part of Property.

BYRON MAWR, Pa., March 12.—Fire was discovered in the stable of the Radnor Hunt Club by the groom who care for thirty odd horses there. The men began at once to remove the blooded horses and prevent a stampede, and when almost all had been removed John R. Valentine, M. F. H., of the Radnor Hunt, was notified by telephone, as was also the "Bryn Mawr Millionaire Fire Company."

In an incredibly short time flames began to creep out of the roof, and the horses, which had been tied to nearby fences, became frantic with fear, and one of them, a green hunter, belonging to Harrison Barclay, of Philadelphia, tore loose and ran like a wild, into the burning barn. He was rescued at great risk, but was found to be burned about the head to such an extent that he was shot. A number of vehicles and hunting paraphernalia were consumed.

Famous Horses Saved.

Among the famous horses, rescued were Miss Deborah's Beauty, Alfred Devereux's Joliet, winner of the Crusader cup two years ago; C. Randolph Snowden's Winston, winner of the first prize in the famous Mate Hunter contest at the Wissahickon and Bryn Mawr shows last season; several horses belonging to Harrison Carter, and three of Arthur Spencer's famous hunters, as were also ten young hunters belonging to John Valentine.

The clanging of the bell on the Bryn Mawr fire company's combination wagon when it sped out Bryn Mawr Avenue to the scene of the fire awoke residents along the route, and many prominent members of the fashionable set were at the fire.

Millionaire Firemen.

The chief of the fire company, Israel H. Supple, the millionaire Republican township chairman, directed the work of the firemen, and such members as John B. Valentine, Dr. Robert T. Fox, George Gray, and others of wealth had hold of the chemical nozzle at times, and their efforts saved the sheds and kennel houses.

It was the first fire at which Harry Hicks, the assistant engineer of the "Nabob" firemen, who was secured from company company No. 10, of Philadelphia, by Samuel V. Vaughan and John H. Converse, after he had been retired at the end of thirty-one years' service, took a hand in the work of labor.

The loss on the building and contents is estimated at $5,000, said to be covered by insurance.

MEETING OF ANCIENT ORDER UNITED WORKMEN

Grand Lodge of Maryland to Assemble
Here Next Tuesday.

The grand lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen, Maryland jurisdiction, will convene at Schmidt's Hall in this city on Tuesday morning. The session was to have been held in Baltimore, but the fire there caused the change to be made.

The order, which is the oldest of the beneficiary fraternities, having about the same relation to organizations of that kind that Masonry has to fraternal societies generally, has under consideration a scheme of assessments, with which to meet death claims, based on scientific data. Most of the grand jurisdictions have adopted the plan, and the Maryland grand lodge will wrestle with the subject.

The jurisdiction includes, besides Maryland, the District of Columbia and the State of Virginia. M. H. Stevenson, of Baltimore, is grand master, and C. F. Charles, of Baltimore, is grand recorder, and S. E. Eeles, Jr., of Baltimore, is grand receiver for treasury. It is expected that William H. Miller, of St. Louis, the supreme master workman, will be present.

CHILD HAS MEASLES; COURT CONTINUES CASE

Baby Boorselski has the measles, and a writ of habeas corpus to return her to her mother, Mrs. H. Boorselski, has been postponed by Chief Justice Claiborne until Friday next.

About a week ago Herman Boorselski began proceedings against his wife, Barbara Boorselski, to compel her to deliver to him their daughter, Edna, who is now in the care of her mother. Mr. Boorselski says his wife is not a proper person to have her care, and that the child, Mr. Boorselski is represented by Messrs. Hallam & Fullam.

When the matter was called up yesterday morning, it was stated to the court that Mrs. Boorselski was ill and unable to be in court, because of the illness of her younger child.

HYATTSVILLE NOTES.

HYATTSVILLE, Md., March 12.—Arthur Louis Moffatt, formerly of Hyattsville, and Charlotte Grace Niles, of Falls Church, Va., were married Thursday morning at the home of the officiating minister, the Rev. M. A. Cackley, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church South. Mr. Moffatt will stay at a week in Washington and then go to their future home, Kansas City.

The proposed legislation to reduce the amount of road betterment money now received by incorporated towns in this county is arousing vigorous opposition, and a special meeting of the board of supervisors will be held Monday evening to take measures to make this opposition effective before the Legislature.

The special election on the proposition to bond Hyattsville for sewers will probably be fixed at the council meeting Monday evening, the bill having passed both houses of the Legislature.

Letters received from Justice Arthur Carr, at Atlantic City, indicate that his health is greatly improved. He and Mrs. Carr will return home in about three weeks.

Mrs. D. H. Hunter, of Bloomfield, Ky., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Forrest S. Pottinger, in Johnson Avenue.

Mrs. Benjamin Fairbanks, of Newark, N. J., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Robert L. Corwin, in Columbia Avenue.

Games, Problems, and Solutions.

(Games, problems, and solutions solicited. Address all communications to Chess Editor, Times Office.)

Correspondence.

C. J. B.—Your solution of Lasker end game problem received. First variation correct. Others draw.

O. S. M.—Key move to problem 15 correct. Try again. Problem No. 16 was annotated correctly. White K should be on K2, instead of Kt. White seven pieces only.

R. E.—See exhaustive analysis of problem No. 27, in last week's issue. In future all problems will be annotated, which compare with diagram. Solution of No. 18 correct.

J. B. B.—Thanks for encouraging note. Your solution correct.

J. A. H. and C. F.—Answer next week. The champion of Virginia, met V. Sournin, the local champion, in a match of three games last Friday and Saturday. Mr. Sournin was in fine fettle and won the first three games played without much trouble, although the game of his opponent was well worthy the reputation which he brought with him from the Old Dominion.

W. B. Mundelle, the former editor of this column, has been compelled to leave the city on account of his health. Mr. Mundelle was one of the most popular members of the local club, and his forced retirement is deeply regretted. He will make his home in San Antonio, Tex., where he has been transferred by the U. S. Navy.

The championship tourney at the local club continues apace, and much interest is manifested in the outcome. During the week Mr. Sournin, who had led in the score, received his first set back from Mr. Snell, who defeated him in a smartly played game. Mr. Sournin, however, has improved his standing by winning from Finn and Mitchell, and Walker won from Sournin, now leads the standing of the players to date follows:

Won. Lost. Drawn.

Walker 5 1 0
Stacy 4 1 1
Finn 4 2 0
Huntington 4 2 1
Horn 3 2 1
Gwyer 3 2 2
Goldborough 2 3 3
Mitchell 2 3 3
Sournin 1 1 1
Snell 0 6 0

Game No. 22.

The many friends of the American player, Frank Marshall, while regretting his failure to win first prize in the Monte Carlo tourney, cannot but feel that he has made the most of the game, that to Maroczy, the winner of the tourney, and won of drew all his remaining games. The following pretty win recited by Marshall, the veteran gambler aptly illustrates the style of play which causes Marshall's entry to be respected by all masters.

Score and notes from "North American."
